

ANTI-RAGGING MEASURES TAKEN

The institute has taken the following measures to prevent ragging in the campus as well as hostels

1. Display of anti-Ragging posters in all prominent places.
2. Display of important features of ragging act in all prominent places.
3. a) Obtained undertaking from II,III and IV B.Tech students in the format provided by JNTUA.
b) Anti-Ragging squads have been constituted with senior students and faculty to prevent-ragging.
4. Instructed/counseled and warned the senior students not to involve in any ragging activities.
5. Created awareness among the students on the provisions of ragging act through concerned heads of the departments and faculty
6. Formed committees with faculty to prevent ragging at different bus stops at Nandyal and Kurnool where the students will be boarding the college bus.
7. Formed committees to supervise at canteen and class rooms during tea break and lunch break.
8. Conducting 1st year class work in a separate block.
9. Separate buses for 1st year boys and girls have been arranged from Kurnool & Nandyal.
10. Allotment of accommodation in a separate wing in hostels where there is locking provision for main gate to prevent seniors from entering into 1st year's wing.
11. A series of meetings with the senior inmates of hostels by management, principal and faculty counseling/advising not to involve in any ragging.
12. A piece of advice by the circle inspector of police of panyam.
13. Formed committees of faculty to visit hostels during lunch and after college hours till the dinner is completed.
14. Hostel Nidra programme has been introduced where faculty and staff will be made to stay along with students during the night times for two months during the initial period.
15. Police complaint boxes are kept for students to inform about ragging incidents.